CLERK: The Stull motion is as follows: strike from the committee amendment line 1 and the word "25" on line 2.

SENATOR STULL: Well I think just one word . . .

PRESIDENT: Senator Kremer asked to be heard and then you would close.

SENATOR STULL: Ok, fine.

SENATOR KREMER: I speak to only one point on that. The testimony and the discussion of the committee brought out the fact that it was not so important the year or age of the car we were talking about. We're not only talking about antique automobiles, we're talking about historical cars. There are some of those, such as the T-Bird, that are younger than 30 years of age. The important part of the bill, as I think Senator Simpson discussed, I'd like to re-emphasize what he said, it's not important how old the car is, but is the use to which it is put. Now if you read the new language anyone that signs an affidavit that this car is being preserved, it's being repaired, it's being reconditioned as an antique automobile, it will not be used for business purposes. If they sign that then they are in violation of the intent of the law. The committee felt that the age of the car was not the important thing. It was the use to which it was put. Now remember we're not only talking about old cars, we're talking about historical cars. So the committee felt it was a fair compromise to put the age of 25 on it. I really don't care. I think that the purpose of the bill is in the new language, that is to establish what is the intent to which I am going to use this car.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh, I want to apologize. I was trying to introduce the children from Merle Beatty after debate, but debate went on too long. Senator Stull do you want to close?

SENATOR STULL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I hope we don't get hung up on this amendment to the committee amendment, but I think 30 years would probably be better than the 25. Regardless, of how you vote on this, I hope that you'll all support the bill. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: By machine. It's the amendment to the amendment by Senator Stull. Record your vote. Senator Mills.

SENATOR MILLS: Could you read the amendment please.

CLERK: The amendment is as follows: to strike from the committee amendment line 1, and the word "twenty-five" on line 2. It strikes the first half of the committee amendment.

PRESIDENT: Have you voted? Record the vote Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 12 nays.

PRESIDENT: Are you ready to vote on the committee amendment? No, it failed didn't it? Would you read the vote again, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 12 nays.
